

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Summit Primary Care (SPC) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. SPC does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

SPC provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact Bill DuGan.

If you believe that SPC has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:
